-Bob Hartt reiterated addressing the lack of action from the Highway Department in altering their lighting to meet the codes of the Dark Skies Bylaw, which they are required to alter. He will reach out to them. Members discussed whether to reach out to Berkshire Springs about their lighting, which they are not required to alter, but were encouraged to. Board members had varying opinions on the subject.

-The board discussed how the DLTA Planning Ahead for Housing grant could be beneficial for understanding and promoting sustainable development and affordable housing in New Marlborough; the board applied for the grant and submitted it.

-Seth Jenkins from BRPC will be at the next meeting to discuss the Open Space Plan on 1/24.

-Public comment; N/A

A motion was made, seconded, and so voted by all members present to adjourn the meeting at 7:13pm
