

New Marlborough Town Library Trustees Meeting, June 11, 2018

Brian called the meeting to order with all present.

The minutes were corrected to say that More than Words will be contacted to see if they will accept the extra books from the book sale. Fred Friedman will deliver the books.

We learned that we are to benefit from the estate of Margaret Priddle.

The Hosford Garden is complete. The Silverblatt family donated the wind chimes. There are two stone seats.

Kelly Anne McGuire will lead two computer workshops. The first will be held on June 23, 2-3:30 pm and will address eBooks. The second series will be general sessions from 5-7 pm on June 21, 28, and July 12. She will be paid $150 for the eBook workshop and $35 an hour for the general sessions.

The automatic doors expense was approved at the Town Meeting.

Debbie will hold a story time at the Farmers' Market in July.

Sally will assist her.

Stephanie Rothschild contacted Debbie concerning a children's concert led by Joanny Leeds. Debbie will contact the Meeting House or Southfield Church as a site for a concert in August.

We discussed the odor in the bathrooms. We decided it must be a dead mouse. Debbie has called Terminex to come investigate.

The Documentary Series will be held June 12 at 7 pm and will feature, Loving Vincent.

We decided to offer a Tick Program to the Community. It will probably be held on a Sunday afternoon.

Leslie Wheeler will lead a Book Talk concerning her latest book. There will be a hike to the Carroll Mill as part of the program on July 21 at 10 am.

The Summer Reading Program is full and will be held July 9-12. Marsha Harvey will mail the fundraising letters for this year. We discussed ways to update the mailing list.

The next meeting is July 9 at 4:30 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Claudette Callahan
