

New Marlborough Library Trustees Meeting

October 19, 2022

9:00 AM

Present: Library Director Deb O'Brien, Trustees Sally Turner, Carrie Liba, Robin Tost

Deb reported that there was an author's talk on October 8 at 1:00. Daniel Medwed, a distinguished professor from Northeastern University, spoke on his new book, "Barred", an expose of the difficulties in overturning wrongful convictions. His talk attracted a very large crowd, and many books were sold.

At the Friends of the Library meeting, it was decided to have the Library book sale on October 7, 2023 from 10-3. We will no longer be a part of Burritt Day.

The Halloween Party will be held at the Goodnow Preserve. There will be decorations, hay rides, a spooky trail leading to an historical figure telling her story, a story-teller and musician and cupcakes for the children. The party set-up will be that morning at 11:00

The pie sale will be on November 19 from 10-3. There will be 30 pies which must be pre-ordered. We will offer apple, cherry, pumpkin, berry and pecan pies.

The NMC field trips and half-day programs will start this month, and Jane Burke will start holding Science Saturdays.

The Library's winter hours will start on November 1.

The next meeting will be held on November 16 at 9:00 AM

Respectfully submitted,
Robin Tost
