

New Marlborough Town Library Library Trustees'

Meeting January 20, 2020

Sally Turner called the meeting to order with all present.

The minutes were accepted.

The Priddle Estate transactions have been completed.

The Generator trench has been dug and the slab poured.

The trustees signed the employment contract for Debbie O'Brien.

The Revolutionary War Monument is at a standstill.

We will plan to attend the Legislative Breakfast at the Monterey Library.

There have been some problems with the new company cleaning the furnace. We also ran out of fuel.

The party for Paul, UPS driver for many years, was a huge success. About 80 people attended.

A party will be held for Jessica, who is closing the Mill River Store, on February 2, at 2 pm at the library.

The Chocolate Sale, a fundraiser for the library, will be held February 8, 10 am-2 pm.

No news on the budget for Town Meeting.

There will not be a homework center this year due to lack of coordination with the school.

The half day program went well.

The next meeting will be held on February 24 at 9 am.

Respectfully submitted, Claudette Callahan
